

THE NAUTICA WATCHES TROPHY

International Team Competition

International excitement has been on the rise in Key West for over a decade now. This friendly, yet highly competitive team component of race week has become a popular feature.

The 2007 scratch sheet features eleven 3-boat teams. The 'Big Boat' on this year's teams will come from IRC 1 & IRC 2 with the Middle and Small Boat coming from the Farr 40 and Melges 24 classes, respectively.

The teams will hail from France, Germany, Ireland, Italy, Norway, the United Kingdom (2), Switzerland and the U.S. (3). The three U.S. teams are regional – with boats representing the West Coast, Chesapeake Bay, and the East Coast.

"Each year the international team competition unites people who would not normally see each other on the race course," notes Race Chairman Peter Craig. "What was loosely modeled after the Admiral's Cup in Cowes, England has become a fun Key West tradition. Presenting sponsor Nautica brings added prestige to the competition along with beautiful timepieces to the winners."

At the end of the week The Nautica Watches Trophy and Nautica Yacht Timer watches will be awarded to each of the three boats on the winning team. Second and third place teams will also receive trophies and timepieces.

International Team Competition scoring is based on the lowest cumulative points scored by each team for the entire series. For the purpose of team scoring, the individual boats on each team will be scored only against other boats on teams within their individual classes.

In 2006, The U.S. West Coast team triumphed over a tough field of 10 teams. Craig Speck's Swan 45 Vim, Fred and Steve Howe's Farr 40 Warpath and Dave Ullman's Melges 24 Pegasus took top honors. Team Italy and Team UK were second and third, respectively.

Nautica Watches representative, Linda Calvert, will again be presenting the trophies and timepieces to the winners. Nautica Watches is the Official Timekeeper for race week.
